Quick Review of Last Study:

---

---

- What must we continue to recognize as the focus and how that effects our understanding of these passages?

---

---

---
- What four major prophecies concerning Israel are affirmed in the first three verses of chapter 12?

---

---

---
- 12:1 – What does “At that time” refer?

---

---

---

  - What does it mean that Michael shall stand up?

---

---
  - What is the time of distress referring?

---

---

○ Who is it that will be rescued?

---

---

○ What is meant by “everyone whose name is written in the book?”

---

---

● 12:2 – Who are the many who sleep in the dust of the ground who will awake?

---

---

○ Is this referring to one event of resurrection?

---

---

○ What is the important point of focus of this resurrection?

---

---

● 12:3 – Who are those who have insight?

---

---

○ What is being described here in relation to shining?

---

---

○ What is being described here in relation to “the stars forever and ever?”

---

---

○ What in a general sense is this verse teaching?

---

---

● 12:4 – What does it mean “conceal these words and seal up the book until the end of time?”

---

---

○ What does it mean “many will go back and forth?”

---

---

○ What does it mean “knowledge will increase?”

---

---

● How does this passage relate to 12:9?

---

---

● Should we be better prepared to understand this passage today than Daniel in his time?
